

- Red bi-colour apple with a creamy white-flesh
- Balanced taste and crisp texture.
- Grower friendly with minimal bruising
- Mutation of Cripps Red (Parentage: Lady Williams x Golden Delicious)
- Late season harvest (Late April - Middle May)
- Fruit that meets the quality specification to be contractually marketed as Joya®
- All observations of trees and fruit were done in Australia

Tree

Chilling	Medium
Vigour	Medium
Growth habit	Spreading with wide angled branches
Full bloom	Late September to early October (early season)
Pollinators	Granny Smith, Braeburn, Royal Gala, Hillieri
Bearing habit	Spurs, tips and shoots
Production	Very good and precocious

Fruit

Brand	Joya®
Harvest	Late April – Middle May, Cripps Pink + 2 weeks
Mass/Fruit size	145g
Shape	Flat-globose
Skin colour	Red striped blush with significantly more over-colour than Cripps Red
Lenticels	Conspicuous
Flesh colour	Creamy white
Taste	Sweet, tart and fragrant
Texture	Crisp and juicy
Storage ability	Very good

